IX. Code of Conduct

In addition to a bar examination, there are character, fitness, and other qualifications for admission to the bar in every U.S. jurisdiction. Applicants are encouraged to determine the requirements for any jurisdiction in which they intend to seek admission by contacting the jurisdiction. Addresses for all relevant agencies are available through the National Conference of Bar Examiners.

State bar associations ask questions similar to these below in assessing character and fitness to practice law. Failure to disclose information requested may result in adverse action by the law school or a state bar association. If you answer "yes" to any question, you must submit an additional statement providing complete and accurate details, including dates and resolution.

CONTINUING DUTY TO DISCLOSE: If, following your completion of the law school application or this form, circumstances arise that would require you to answer "yes" to any question, you must submit an amendment to this application as soon as reasonably possible. Also, according to the Law School Student Handbook, the obligation to disclose any of the following information continues throughout law school and includes events occurring after enrollment.

A. Have you ever been arrested, charged with, or convicted of a crime, including misdemeanors and traffic violations, or is any such charge pending or expected to be brought against you? Do not include parking violations and speeding citations of 20 mph or less over the limit or records that have been sealed or expunged.

B. Have you ever been disciplined by any college, university, graduate school, professional school, or other institution of higher learning, or is any such disciplinary action pending or expected to be brought against you?
□ Yes □ No If yes, please provide an explanation.

C. Have you ever been discharged or resigned from any employment, externship, internship or volunteer position after you were told you were suspected of or being investigated for any wrongdoing?
□ Yes □ No If yes, please provide an explanation.

D. Have you ever been disciplined by any profession, professional organization, or licensing board, or is any such disciplinary action pending or expected to be brought against you?
□ Yes □ No If yes, please provide an explanation.

X. Certification

By submitting this application, I certify and agree to the following:

- The information given in this application is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge;
- I understand that false or misleading information may result in revocation of an offer of admission or other disciplinary action;
- I will promptly inform the School of Law if there is any change to any of the facts and responses to my application, including new "Code of Conduct" matters that occur during the application process or after admission and matriculation;
- The University may obtain additional information from other sources pertinent to my record prior to attending the University;
- The University may pursue a background check on me to confirm the accuracy of my application, and I will cooperate with the University in performing any such check;
- The University may release to an appropriate bar association any information pertinent to my character and fitness.
