Application Procedures:

An applicant must submit the following directly to the Law School:

1. A dated and signed Alabama Scholars Admissions Program Application Form (attached).
2. Completed CAS Report.
  - You must register for CAS through www.lsac.org. Your CAS Report must reflect transcripts from all universities and colleges attended and an LSAT score before the Admissions Committee will review your application. It is your responsibility to register for CAS and ensure that all transcripts, scores, and fees have been received by the LSAC and The University of Alabama School of Law.
  - If you have ever enrolled in classes from an institution outside the United States, then you also must register for the CAS authentication and evaluation service.
  - The LSAC provides all applicants with status information on the LSAC website at www.lsac.org.
3. Current résumé with any information you wish for the Law School to consider.

The streamlined application process normally will result in an admission decision within approximately 24 hours of the Law School's receipt of the completed application.

II. Code of Conduct

In addition to a bar examination, there are character, fitness, and other qualifications for admission to the bar in every U.S. jurisdiction. Applicants are encouraged to determine the requirements for any jurisdiction in which they intend to seek admission by contacting the jurisdiction. Addresses for all relevant agencies are available through the National Conference of Bar Examiners.

State bar associations ask questions similar to these below in assessing character and fitness to practice law. Failure to disclose information requested may result in adverse action by the law school or a state bar association. If you answer "yes" to any question, you must submit an additional statement providing complete and accurate details, including dates and resolution.

CONTINUING DUTY TO DISCLOSE: If, following your completion of the law school application or this form, circumstances arise that would require you to answer “yes” to any question, you must submit an amendment to this application as soon as reasonably possible. Also, according to the Law School Student Handbook, the obligation to disclose any of the following information continues throughout law school and includes events occurring after enrollment.

A. Have you ever been arrested, charged with, or convicted of a crime, including misdemeanors and traffic violations, or is any such charge pending or expected to be brought against you? Do not include parking violations and speeding citations of 20 mph or less over the limit or records that have been sealed or expunged.  Yes  No If yes, please provide an explanation.

B. Have you ever been disciplined by any college, university, graduate school, professional school, or other institution of higher learning, or is any such disciplinary action pending or expected to be brought against you?  Yes  No If yes, please provide an explanation.

C. Have you ever been discharged or resigned from any employment, externship, internship or volunteer position after you were told you were suspected of or being investigated for any wrongdoing?  Yes  No If yes, please provide an explanation.

D. Have you ever been disciplined by any profession, professional organization, or licensing board, or is any such disciplinary action pending or expected to be brought against you?  Yes  No If yes, please provide an explanation.

III. Summer Academic Support and Excellence Program

The School of Law may offer a Summer Academic Support and Excellence program for a select number of incoming first-year J.D. students. For more information, please see our website. If you are interested in participating in the summer program, please indicate your interest here:  Yes  No
