WORKPLACE LAW
SUPPLEMENTAL SYLLABUS

The following refers to the table of contents in our designated case and material textbook. We have fourteen weeks of class, and we will make a good effort to cover the following topics in those weeks.

Be mindful that this course assumes separate course offerings in Arbitrations, Workers Compensation, Employment Discrimination, Labor Law, and ERISA. We do not in this course offer a substitute for those courses, but we will refer to those areas of law as needed to place them in the context of Work Law.

Week 1

Chapter 1. Origins
A. The Meaning of Work, p. 3
B. The Rise and Fall of Freedom of Contract p. 4
C. The New Deal Labor Legislation
   1. The Labor Laws p. 9
   2. The Philosophy of Unionism p. 21
   3. The Decline of Unionism p. 22
D. The Individual Rights Model  Denotes beginning page only p. 42

Chapter 2. The Contemporary Era
A. The Workforce of the Future p. 48
B. The Globalized Labor Market p. 55
C. The Reconstitution of Work p. 60

Week 2

Chapter 2. (continued)
D. Designing the Borders of the Employment Relations p. 74

A. The Presumption of Employment At Will p. 100
B. Express Agreements p. 122

Week 3

Chapter 3. (continued)
C. Implied Agreements p. 132
D. Revisiting the Presumption p. 187
Week 4

Chapter 4. Public Policy for Individual Job Security
A. The Public Policy Exception
B. What Constitutes Public Policy?
C. Constructive Discharge
D. Constructive Discharge

Week 5

Chapter 5. Collective Job Security
A. Common Law Contract, Property, and Tort Claims
B. Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act
C. Collective Job Security Under the National Labor Relations Act
D. The Unemployment Insurance Systems

Week 6

Chapter 6. Employee Mobility
A. Covenants Not To Compete
B. Trade Secrets
C. The Duty of Loyalty

Week 7

Chapter 7. Dignitary Interests
A. Avoiding Emotional Harm
B. Privacy
C. Off-Duty Conduct and Association
D. Testing, Screening, and Monitoring
E. Reputation

Week 8

Chapter 8. Employee Voice
A. Employee Interests in Voice
B. The Public Sector Employee
C. The Private Sector Employee
D. Collective Voice Protection- The NLRA

Week 9

Chapter 9. Employment Discrimination Law
A. Introduction
B. Claims of Intentional Discrimination; The Disparate Doctrine Model p. 567
C. Disparate Impact Claims and their Relation to Other Theories of Discrimination p. 608

Week 10

Chapter 9. (continued)
D. Sexual Harassment Law p. 630
E. …… F. Contemporary Workplace Law Issues p. 673

Week 11

Chapter 10. Challenges To Equality in a Developing Workplace p. 699
A. The Immigrant Workforce p. 699
B. Balancing Work and Family (FMLA) p. 734

Chapter 11. The Regulation of Wages and Hours p. 761
A. Historical Origins p. 762
B. The FLSA: Discrimination Wage and Overtime Provisions p. 772

Week 12

Chapter 11. (Continued)
E. The Overtime Bargain: Time, Money, and Class Status p. 842

Week 13

Chapter 13. Health and Safety p. 939
A. …… B. OSHA p. 1000
C. ……

Week 14

Chapter 14. Arbitration of Workplace Disputes p. 1029
A. Industrial Protection Meets Statutory Protection p. 1029
B. PreDispute Arbitration Agreements In The New Union Workplace p. 1035
C. Union Waivers of Workers’ Statutory Former Rights p. 1043
D. Limitations on The Expendability of Arbitration Agreements p. 1057
E. ……