INSTRUCTIONS

Applications should be postmarked no later than June 1, 2024.

Please submit the following materials to the above address:

1. Application for Admission to LL.M. Program.

2. $50 nonrefundable application fee (payable to The University of Alabama). This fee cannot be waived and is required of all applicants. PLEASE DO NOT SEND CASH. Send a check or money order to the address above. If you wish to pay by credit card, you may do so online at http://www.law.ua.edu/prospective/llmappfee/.

3. An official transcript from each college, university, and law school attended. These transcripts must be sent directly from each educational institution. (If you received a degree from The University of Alabama School of Law, it will not be necessary to have that transcript sent. The transcript is on file.)

4. Letters of reference and an expanded resume are both optional.

5. Supplementary page providing details if you answer Yes to any portion of the Code of Conduct questions. If you have questions about any part of the Code of Conduct section, please call the LL.M. Admissions Office. For Question VI. (B), do not include parking violations, speeding citations of 20 mph or less over the speed limit, or convictions or adjudications which have been sealed or expunged.

6. An LSAT score as requested on the application (if you took it). Your law school should be able to provide you with your score.

Please remember that your file remains incomplete until all the above materials have been received by the LL.M. Admissions Office. The Graduate Admissions Committee reviews applications on a rolling basis at any time during the year. The Committee evaluates each candidate based on the likelihood of success in the program. As the primary indicator of success in the program, the Committee considers prior performance in academic and law school undertakings. However, the Committee also takes into account relevant work or other practical experience.

V. Essay

Please explain your objective or any goals you have in earning an LL.M. at The University of Alabama School of Law. (Limit your answer to one typed 8½ x 11 inch page.)

Resumes are often useful additions for the Graduate Admissions Committee to consider. Feel free to attach your resume. You may also feel free to include any other information about yourself that you would like the Committee to consider.
VI. Disciplinary or Criminal History

University and School of Law Community Interests. The University of Alabama has vital interests in the safety of its campus and the fitness of its students to be members of the University community. The School of Law shares these interests, and, as a professional school, it has a heightened concern for the behavior, honesty, and integrity of its students. Therefore, the School of Law may deny admission to, or revoke admission of, any applicant whom it deems to be detrimental to these interests. To assist in that consideration, the School of Law requires applicants to provide certain information about their disciplinary or criminal history. A criminal or disciplinary history is not an automatic bar to admission. Any admission decision relating to a criminal or disciplinary disclosure is made on a case-by-case basis considering the entirety of the file.

Qualifications for Bar Admission. In addition to a bar examination, there are character, fitness, and other qualifications for admission to the bar in every U.S. jurisdiction. Applicants are encouraged to determine the requirements for any jurisdiction in which they intend to seek admission by contacting the jurisdiction. Addresses for all relevant agencies are available through the National Conference of Bar Examiners. As part of their character and fitness review, state bar associations ask questions about prior conduct, including disciplinary and criminal conduct. The questions on this application to the School of Law are not necessarily identical to those of any state bar association. For example, state bar questions typically are more exhaustive and cover more types of conduct, such as arrests. Admission to the School of Law does not guarantee that an applicant will satisfy the character and fitness review and other qualifications of any state bar.

Conduct Questions. If you answer yes to any of the following questions, please attach an additional statement providing complete details, including the dates, circumstances, and resolution. Please also include any information describing how you believe you can positively contribute to the campus community despite any prior issue(s) disclosed below (e.g., evidence of rehabilitation, community service, etc.).

In answering the questions below, “convicted” means a judge or jury has found you guilty of the crime(s) charged against you in a court of law, following a trial or guilty plea. If your conviction has been sealed, expunged, or overturned, you do not have to disclose the conviction associated with that situation.

A. Have you ever been placed on probation, suspended, dismissed, removed, or expelled from any college, university, or other post-secondary institution or are you currently the subject of any pending disciplinary action by any academic institution?

☐ Yes  ☐ No

B. Have you ever been convicted of any felony?

☐ Yes  ☐ No

C. Have you ever been convicted of an offense involving physical harm to another person or animal?

☐ Yes  ☐ No

D. Have you ever been convicted of a sexual offense?

☐ Yes  ☐ No
E. Have you ever been convicted of stalking or have you ever received a restraining order, protective order, or similar directive to avoid or to limit contact with a group or individual?

☐ Yes  ☐ No

F. Are you currently the subject of pending charges or an indictment for any of the offenses listed above in questions B-E above?

☐ Yes  ☐ No

Appeal. The School of Law will notify an applicant if he or she is denied admission based solely on the conduct questions B-F above. In that particular case, the applicant may appeal the denial by providing a written statement of appeal to the School of Law within seven calendar days from when the denial was received. The appeal statement should be directed to the Associate Dean for Graduate Law Programs at the School of Law.

VIII. Certification and Consent

By submitting this application, I certify and consent to the following:

• The information contained herein is true, correct, and complete;
• False, incomplete or misleading information, or other information that may come to light that reflects negatively on your fitness to be a member of the University community, may result in the revocation of an offer of admission or in other disciplinary action;
• The University may obtain additional information, which includes my education records, from others pertinent to my record prior to attending the University;
• The University may pursue a background check on me to confirm the accuracy of my application, and I will cooperate with the University in performing any such check;
• The University may release to an appropriate bar association any information pertinent to my character and fitness;
• I will promptly inform the School of Law if there is a change to any of the responses in this application, including any changes to the information regarding my disciplinary and criminal history, whether the incidents occur before or during the application process or after admission and matriculation.
• I have not used artificial intelligence tools, such as ChatGPT, in completing any portion of this application.
