INDEPENDENT STUDY PROPOSAL

PLEASE RETURN THIS COMPLETED FORM TO THE LAW SCHOOL RECORDS OFFICE, SIGNED BY DEAN MARSH AND THE SUPERVISING PROFESSOR, BEFORE REGISTERING FOR AN INDEPENDENT STUDY PROJECT

Your name: ___________________________ 2L ___ 3L ___

Your CWID: ________  Today’s date: ________________

Semester to receive credit: ___________  Deadline for completion: ______________

Describe the proposed independent study project, including your learning objectives:

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Learning Objectives:

1. __________________________________________
2. __________________________________________

Number of credit hours: _________  Graded or P/D/F? _________________________

Law School policy does not permit independent study credit if you receive other course credit or compensation for the same activity. If this project is related in any way to an activity for which you have received or will receive other course credit or compensation, please explain:

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

No more than three independent study credits may count toward the JD degree. A student may register for only one independent study project per semester. For how many credits of independent study have you previously registered? __________________

SIGNATURES:

Student: _________________________________

Supervising Professor: __________________________

Associate Dean Jenelle Marsh: __________________________

Revised 7/8/2009