Symposium:
When Does Retroactivity Cross the Line?
Winstar, Eastern Enterprises and Beyond

Contents

A Timely Debate

Eric G. Bruggink 933

Eastern Enterprises, Phillips, Money, and the Limited Role of the Just Compensation Clause in Protecting Property "in its Larger and Juster Meaning"

Robert Brauneis 937

Regulatory Takings and "Judicial Supremacy"

J. Peter Byrne 949

Retroactive Legislation and Regulations and Federal Government Contracts

John Cibinic, Jr. 963

Substantive Due Process and Regulatory Takings: A Reappraisal

Steven J. Eagle 977

Takings and Errors

John D. Echeverria 1047

Retroactivity, the Rule of Law, and the Constitution

James L. Huffman 1095

The New Retroactivity Causation Standard

Jan G. Laitos 1123

The Impact of Eastern Enterprises and Possible Legislation on the Jurisdiction and Remedies of the U.S. Court of Federal Claims

Robert Meltz 1161
THE STATUS OF THE SOVEREIGN ACTS AND UNMISTAKABILITY DOCTRINES IN THE WAKE OF WINSTAR: AN INTERIM REPORT

Joshua I. Schwartz 1177

AN ANALYSIS OF JURISDICTIONAL ISSUES ARISING FROM EASTERN ENTERPRISES V. APFEL

Richard H. Seamon 1239

THE ALLURE OF CONSEQUENTIAL FIT

Barton H. Thompson, Jr. 1261

DID EASTERN ENTERPRISES SEND ENTERPRISE RESPONSIBILITY SOUTH?

Charles Tiefer 1305

TOWARD A DEFINITION AND CRITIQUE OF RETROACTIVITY

Daniel E. Troy 1329

TAKING REGULATORY TAKINGS PERSONALLY: THE PERILS OF (MIS)REASONING BY ANALOGY

Michael Allan Wolf 1355