

Equity

Davis

Fall 18

Penny Davis

pdavis@law.ua.edu

205-348-2866

Office hours:

Room: 321

By appointment

COURSE MATERIALS:

Cases and Materials on Equitable Remedies, Restitution and Damages, 7th ed. or 8th ed.
by: Lewill, Love, Nelson

SECONDARY RESOURCES: (Not required)

- 1) Hornbook, Dobbs, Handbook on the Law of Remedies
- 2) Tilley's Alabama Equity, 4th ed., Penny Davis

CLASS ATTENDANCE

Law School policies on attendance, exams, grading, and academic misconduct apply. (See your Student Handbook (www.law.ua.edu/students/handbook.pdf) for copies of these documents and Associate Dean for questions you might have.)

EXAM

The exam will be a traditional law school type exam. (Old exams on line or in the library). The exam will "Float" beginning on the first day of exams through Friday, December 7th. It will be a timed exam. Each student may bring into the exam a 25 page Summary. The Summary must have been prepared by the individual student and may not include anything that has been "cut and pasted" from any source.

Grading:

I will follow Law School policy regarding class participation and all other matters. Class participation may affect your grade as permitted by law school policy.

ADA Accommodations:

The Law School is committed to meeting the needs of students with physical, learning, and other disabilities, and provides appropriate accommodations and services tailored to each person's specific requirements. The Law School's associate deans and the University's Office of Disability Services work together to help individuals with disabilities achieve and maintain individual autonomy. Students with disabilities are encouraged to contact the Associate Dean for Students/Academic Services at 205.348.5750 so that the individual's needs for support services can be evaluated and accommodated in a timely manner.

Technology Use in Class Room:

Use of Computers or Electronic Devices in the Classroom

Section 1. Policy.

(a) A student may not use a computer or electronic device in the classroom for a purpose that is unrelated to note-taking or classroom instruction. Any additional limitations imposed for a particular class session will be imposed only after all students have been informed in a timely manner.

(b) A student may not use a computer or electronic device to record a class without the permission of the faculty member who teaches the course.

Section 2. Sanctions.

A student who willfully violates this policy may, in the discretion of the faculty member, be treated as absent for the class session in which the violation takes place. Note: Additional sanctions may be imposed as permitted by the Law School after consultation with the Associate Dean for Students/Academic Services.