 These courses are being offered via distance learning (interactive) through our LL.M. in Taxation and LL.M. Concentration in Business Transactions program. JD students satisfying prerequisites may register with permission from Associate Dean Dan Powell. Classes meet from 5:30 – 7:30 p.m. with the exception of (1) Corporate Tax and (2) Intellectual Property for Technology & Business Development. These two classes meet from 5:30 – 8:30 p.m. Pre-requisite: Personal Income Tax (LL.M. Concentration in Taxation); Business Organizations (LL.M. Concentration in Business Transactions).

VERY IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

DROPPING AND ADDING COURSES

During the first week of classes each semester, students may drop or add most non-required courses without academic penalty, subject to requirements outlined in the previous section. After the end of the first week of classes, a student may drop a course only with permission of the Dean or his designee, the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs. An administrative fee may be charged or a “W” assigned for each drop or add. Students, however, may not withdraw from clinics, trial advocacy classes, and mini-courses for which they are enrolled in the following semester after the last day of classes (November 26) for the current semester unless unusual circumstances exist.

OTHER NOTICES

- Students may not take more than two seminars during law school.
- Students may not take more than one seminar a semester.
- No more than three hours of Independent Study may count toward the J.D. degree. A student may register for only one Independent Study project each semester. Approval for Independent Study must be granted by the professor and the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs before registering for the hours.
- Students may not use more than 25 credit hours toward graduation from the following:
 - Independent Study
 - Externships
