2017 HARPER LEE PRIZE
ENTRY FORM

AWARD CRITERIA
The prize is awarded annually to a published work of fiction that best illuminates the role of lawyers in society and their power to effect change.

The work must be:
• A published book-length work of fiction
• Published originally in 2016
• Readily available to readers via commercial sources (retail or online bookstores such as Barnes & Noble, Amazon, or iTunes)
• An electronically published work with an ISBN may be submitted but unpublished manuscripts may not.

ENTRY RULES
Please submit this original, signed form, along with 14 copies of the book (or for titles published as e-books only, a digital file we may duplicate for the judges) to:
Harper Lee Prize
The University of Alabama School of Law
101 Paul Bryant Drive
Tuscaloosa, AL 35487
The deadline to receive entries is March 31, 2017. There is no entry fee.

SELECTION PROCESS
After the entries close, a panel will review the entries and select three finalists, to be announced in May 2017.
• The finalists will be submitted to the prize selection committee for judging.
• Members of the public will have the opportunity to vote for their favorite among the finalists on the ABA Journal website, and the winner of the public vote will be considered during the prize selection process.
The winner will be honored at the 7th Annual Harper Lee Prize ceremony.

ELIGIBILITY
Previous winners are ineligible.

PUBLISHER AND AUTHOR AGREEMENT
By signing this entry form, the publisher and author of the entered work agree that:
• The title, author, and cover image of the book may be used in conjunction with Prize publicity.
• The entry may be listed on the ABA Journal website during the public voting process if selected as a finalist.
• If chosen as a finalist, the author agrees to participate in a Harper Lee Prize podcast, available via the ABA Journal website.
• The author will attend the Harper Lee Prize award ceremony.
